Historically the Crook Farm Country Fair has featured traditional Bluegrass, Folk and American Traditional Country Music & Dance. This year is no exception with an expanded line-up featuring top-notch local and regional talent. All area traditional musicians are encouraged to participate in and around the fair grounds, & join in at the Jam/Song Tent.

This event is the primary fundraising activity of the Bradford Landmark Society. Throughout the year these folks encourage local music & dance by generously allowing us access to the Crook Farm facilities. This is a chance for the local musicians & dancers to get together & say “Thank You!”

PAY SCALE: We try to cover gas & some expenses. All local musicians donate their time. We hope it will be a labor of love for you!

Non-local musicians (more than 25 miles)

$25/per person/Main Stage Set - up to $75/group/Main Stage Set

$25 per workshop

Free admission, rough camping, hospitality area (water, coffee, snacks)
