

Creative Women's Workshop

July 30, 2016 9AM to 3PM

Sponsored by the Bradford Landmark Society

Registration Form

Please mark four choices, numbering them 1 through 4, of classes you would like to take, starting with your first preference. And get ready for fun!

1. _____ A Tisket, a Tasket. Make a Little Basket. Betsy Matz will teach the basics of making a basket; each woman will work on her own project. Materials will be provided.
2. _____ Tatting, Shuttle. Your grandmother probably was a tatter, creating that lacelike embroidery on handkerchiefs, pillowcases, and doilies with a tatting shuttle. Learn an old fashioned but still popular craft!
3. _____ Tatting, Needle. A different type of tatting, needle tatting is a variation on the traditional tatting methods and produces lovely results.
4. _____ Blacksmithing for Women. Taught by Bruce Osgood, an experienced blacksmith, women will create a piece of jewelry from real horseshoe nails, using traditional skills and blacksmithing techniques. *****At Capacity - Registration now closed for this class.*******
5. _____ Calligraphy. One of our most popular classes every summer, Sue Wells will once again teach calligraphy, the art of beautiful writing with a pen and ink. Think greeting cards, invitations, inspirational quotes. The uses for beautiful handwriting is endless!
6. _____ Candlemaking. Learn what all the fuss about making your own candles is all about! Learn how to melt wax, color it, insert candle wicks, and of course, dip your own!
7. _____ Sushi Forever! Make your own sushi at home using a bamboo mat, rice and fresh vegetables. We will not be using raw fish, but promise delicious results!
8. _____ Counted Cross Stitch. Long time stitcher, Sally Ambrose will explain how to create beautiful items using a needle, embroidery floss, and the ability to count!
9. _____ Terrariums. Capture nature in a jar! Under the direction of Bob Harris, UPB's master gardener, women will learn how to create the magic world of terrariums.
10. _____ The Joy of Juggling. Mary Gibbs will teach you the basic of juggling; not just a fun recreational activity but helps with motor skills development. Fun AND exercise together!
11. _____ Knitting. Knit one, purl two? Phyllis Ross will teach the basics of knitting, one of the most popular hobbies in the United States. PLEASE NOTE: KNITTING WILL BE A DOUBLE CLASS; IF YOU CHOOSE KNITTING YOU MAY SELECT ONLY 2 OTHER CLASSES.

12. _____ Color Your World...with Tie Dye. Taught by an enthusiastic tie dyer, Kim Wright, women will learn the basics of making colorful cloth with dye. Relive the 60s!
13. _____ Quilting. Taught by the Landmark's own Judy York, each woman will learn the basics of quilting, how to choose patterns, how to cut, pin, and quilt on their own pillow case.
14. _____ Pencil Drawing. Local artist Tom Seagren will teach students pencil drawing techniques as they learn to express themselves with pencil and paper.
15. _____ Build a Better Birdhouse! Make your feathered friends a home with wood, nails, and enthusiasm! Cal Abbott will direct this class; all materials will be provided.
16. _____ Horseshoes. A great backyard classic game, learn the skill of pitching horseshoes from Joanne Lindy, eight time local champion horseshoe pitcher. Be the star at your next family picnic!
17. _____ Woodburning. Learn the age old skill of pyrography, or burning beautiful designs into wood.

Cost is $40 for all four classes. Lunch will be provided. All classes will be held at the Crook Farm, 476 Seward Avenue, Bradford. Pre-registration is necessary. Some classes may be closed early due to popularity.
